

THE HOLY TRIDUUM

It's a Latin word for "Three Days". It commemorates Christ's redemptive journey through passion, death, burial and resurrection to new life. It comprises HOLY THURSDAY: on this day we remember the time when Jesus had his Last Supper with the Apostles sharing the Eucharist, the new commandment of love and the washing of the feet. GOOD FRIDAY is filled with silence venerating the Cross on which He died for our salvation. HOLY SATURDAY, also called EASTER VIGIL is filled with the wonder of the resurrection. The ceremony starts out with the Blessing of Fire, then the Easter Proclamation ("Preconium"), the readings of the history of salvation, the Baptism of Catechumens, the blessing of the holy water, and the solemn "ALLELUIA" as a resounding shout of joy for Christ's rising to life.

EL TRIDUO PASCUAL

Es una palabra latina que se refiere a los "tres días" antes de la Pascua. Conmemora los últimos días de la vida Cristo en este mundo con la pasión, muerte, entierro y su resurrección a una nueva vida. Se trata del JUEVES SANTO: en este día recordamos la noche en que Jesús tuvo la Última Cena con los Apóstoles, instituyendo la Eucaristía, entregándoles el nuevo mandamiento del amor y lavándoles los pies. El VIERNES SANTO está lleno de silencio. Veneramos la Cruz en la que murió por nuestra salvación. El SÁBADO SANTO, también llamado VIGILIA PASCUAL, se llena de maravilla de la resurrección de Jesús. La ceremonia comienza con la bendición del fuego, la proclamación de Pascua ("Preconio"), las lecturas de la historia de la salvación, el bautismo de los catecúmenos, la bendición del agua y el solemne "ALELUYA" como un gigantesco grito de alegría por la resurrección de Cristo.
