From the pastor

Dear Parishioners,
Today, the Sunday after the Feast of the Holy Trinity, we celebrate “Corpus Christi”, the most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, the Eucharistic bread and wine that during the mass become the person of Jesus and that we receive in a holy communion. We remember the gift of Jesus of his body and blood to his apostles in the cenacle on Holy Thursday and how the church community is fulfilling his command to “do this in memory of Him”. In some places this celebration takes place on Thursday with solemn procession and other public devotions. Every Sunday we are called to celebrate the Holy Eucharist; some of us come to the daily mass and participate in a holy hour of adoration and benediction on Wednesdays and on the First Fridays of the month.

This coming Friday is the liturgical Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and this coming Saturday is the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary; we invite you to celebrate these feasts in the morning and evening masses.

Have a blessed Sunday!

Fr. Firmo Mantovani, cs, Pastor.

Estimados Amigos Parroquianos,
Hoy, el domingo después de la fiesta de la Santísima Trinidad, celebramos “Corpus Christi”, el Preciosísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Jesucristo en el pan y el vino eucarístico en el que se hace presente durante la misa y que recibimos en la santa comunión. Estamos recordando el regalo que Jesucristo ha hecho a sus apóstoles de su cuerpo y de su sangre en el cenáculo el Jueves Santo; así la iglesia cumple el mandato de Jesús “haced esto en conmemoración mía”. En algunos lugares esta fiesta se celebra el jueves con una procesión solemne y con otras devociones públicas. Cada domingo estamos invitados a celebrar la eucaristía; algunos de nosotros venimos a la celebración diaria y participamos en una hora de adoración y de la bendición del santísimo sacramento los miércoles y los Primeros Viernes del mes. Este Viernes estaremos celebrando la fiesta litúrgica del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús y el Sábado la fiesta del Inmaculado Corazón de María; les invitamos a las misas de la mañana y de la tarde.

¡Que gocen de un domingo feliz!

P. Firmo Mantovani, cs, Párroco.

En la catequesis de hoy nos referimos a la pobreza, como condición de vida que pone a prueba la familia y la hace vulnerable. La pobreza azota a muchas familias en las periferias de las grandes ciudades y también en algunas zonas rurales. Muchas veces se ve agravada por la guerra, que es sin duda la madre de todas las pobreza, depredadora de vidas, de almas y de los afectos más queridos. En medio de estas situaciones, muchas familias intentan vivir con dignidad, confiando en la bendición de Dios, convirtiéndose así en una auténtica escuela de humanidad que salva a la sociedad de la barbarie. Pero este reconocimiento no nos exime de nuestra obligación de velar con la oración y con la acción para que a nadie falte el pan, el trabajo, la educación y la sanidad. Es necesario que desde todas las instancias de la vida pública se pongan los medios para un nuevo orden social, que rompa la espiral perversa entre familia y pobreza que lleva la sociedad a la ruina. También nosotros cristianos debemos estar cada vez más cerca de las familias que sufren la pobreza. La Iglesia madre no debe olvidar nunca este drama de sus hijos. Ella también está llamada a ser pobre, practicando la simplicidad en su propia vida, de manera que llegue a ser fecunda y pueda dar una respuesta a tanta miseria.

In questi mercoledì abbiamo riflettuto sulla famiglia e andiamo avanti su questo tema, riflettere sulla famiglia. E da oggi le nostre catechesi si aprono, con la riflessione alla considerazione della vulnerabilità che ha la famiglia, nelle condizioni della vita che la mettono alla prova. La famiglia ha tanti problemi che la mettono alla prova. Una di queste prove è la povertà. Pensiamo a tante famiglie che popolano le periferie delle megalopoli, ma anche alle zone rurali... Quanta miseria, quanto degrado! E poi, ad aggravare la situazione, in alcuni luoghi arriva anche la guerra. La guerra è sempre una cosa terribile. Essa inoltre colpisce specialmente le popolazioni civili, le famiglie. Davvero la guerra è la “madre di tutte le povertà”, la guerra impoverisce la famiglia, una grande predatrice di vite, di anime, e degli affetti più sacri e più cari.

Diles que NO cuando sea necesario.

Los valores que le inculques a tus hijos les ayudará hacer lo que deben y no lo que quieren.

6 things every son needs from his mom

Boys tend to have a warm relationship with their mother. It is natural for a son to want to be close to her and protect her. To boys, their mother is the most beautiful, most perfect woman in the world. Her faults are practically invisible to her sons. Fathers bring out more of a boy's adventurous, playful side, with the possibility of more risky pranks and greater physical impact; "while the mother is for her son, the good, the welfare, the law, in a word, the Godhead in a form accessible to children," said Henry Frédéric Amiel. The balance of a mother/son relationship is critical for normal growth and development of the child's personality. The boy needs to feel that he is accepted and loved unconditionally, that he can approach and seek protection at any time and will be welcomed. To deny these needs can bring about severe consequences. The hurt acquired in childhood shapes a person's character. Physical and/or psychological abuse coming from the person who the child loves and trusts the most, will make a child feel that the world is hostile and should be handled with violence and self-defense.

So What Do Boys Need From Their Mothers?

1. Love: Tell your son how much you love him, and let it be clear. Demonstrate gestures of acceptance. He will in turn reflect that love to you and to others.
2. Teaching: Your son wants and needs to be taught. Teach him to do well, the difference between right and wrong, to be self-sufficient and to be independent.
3. Space to Grow: Instruct him, set good examples for him and then trust him to try things on his own.
4. Loving Correction: Give him room to make mistakes, and to learn from them. Correcting your son's mistakes firmly but kindly will help him want to do the right thing. Humiliating correction, on the other hand, produces the opposite effect.
5. Limits: Setting limits is important. If a child feels that you cannot control his inappropriate behavior, he will feel like he is stronger than you and will try to manipulate you. On the other hand, if you overwhelm your son with inappropriate limits, he will feel no confidence and have difficulty getting and keeping jobs in the future. Setting appropriate limits will help him succeed.
6. Physical contact: Hug and kiss your child. Look into his eyes, smile at him and play and laugh with him. Let your son seek your hand when he needs support, and let him meet your eyes' approval when he is feeling insecure. Make your arms available when he is happy or needs a shoulder to cry on. Mothers, you will discover that a son, who depends on your love and the security that it conveys, is one of the best gifts God has given you.

Gracias por su generosidad: BENDICIONES. We thank everyone for your generosity, now and throughout the year. God bless you!
