From the pastor

Dear Parishioners,

We are celebrating today the Second Sunday of Lent. In the reading of today's gospel we find the transfiguration of Jesus in a high mountain called Tabor. He showed his three apostles a glimpse of his divine glory. Moses and Elijah were conversing with him about his passion and death that were about to happen in the city of Jerusalem.

We are now well into the holy season of lent; we are reminded of the observances of lent: fast, prayers and almsgiving. "Sacrifice" is the key word; what should I give up? It could be a type of food, television program or time in the internet, unnecessary shopping, alcohol...; these are some examples of Lenten abstinence that we Catholics are invited to observe.

Our community parish and our diocese thank those that have declared their offering to the Annual Diocesan Appeal; we really need your donation to reach our goal!

Have a blessed Lenten season!

Fr. Firmo Mantovani, cs, Pastor.

ADA2015
ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

Estimados Amigos Parroquianos, Estamos celebrando el Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma. En la lectura del evangelio encontramos hoy a Jesucristo en lo alto del monte Tabor. El enseñó a tres de sus discípulos la gloria de su divinidad. Moisés y Elías estaban conversando con El sobre su pasión y muerte que acontecerían en Jerusalén en pocos días.

Nosotros ya estamos bien adentro de la estación de la cuaresma. ¿Cómo estamos viviendo las disciplinas cuaresmales que son la oración, y la caridad? La palabra clave es sacrificio; yo puedo sacrificar algún tipo de comida, un programa de televisión, menos tiempo en el internet, alguna compra no innecesaria, alcohol... estos son algunos ejemplos de las prácticas y abstinencias cuaresmales que nosotros los católicos estamos llamados a practicar. Nuestra diócesis y comunidad parroquial están agradecidos por su ofrenda al Llamado Diocesano Anual (ADA); ¡realmente necesitamos su ayuda para llegar a nuestra meta!

¡Qué tengan un periodo cuaresmal bendito!

P. Firmo Mantovani, cs, Párroco.

Make your hearts firm (Jas 5:8) Lent is a time of renewal for the whole Church, for each communities and every believer. Above all it is a "time of grace" (2 Cor 6:2). God does not ask of us anything that he himself has not first given us. "We love because he first has loved us" (1 Jn 4:19). He is not aloof from us. Each one of us has a place in his heart. He knows us by name, he cares for us and he seeks us out whenever we turn away from him. He is interested in each of us; his love does not allow him to be indifferent to what happens to us. Usually, when we are healthy and comfortable, we forget about others (something God the Father never does): we are unconcerned with their problems, their sufferings and the injustices they endure... Our heart grows cold. As long as I am relatively healthy and comfortable, I don't think about those less well off. Today, this selfish attitude of indifference has taken on global proportions, to the extent that we can speak of a globalization of indifference. It is a problem which we, as Christians, need to confront.

Fortalezcan sus corazones (St 5,8) La Cuaresma es un tiempo de renovación para la Iglesia, para las comunidades y para cada creyente. Pero sobre todo es un «tiempo de gracia» (2 Co 6,2). Dios no nos pide nada que no nos haya dado antes: «Nosotros amemos a Dios porque él nos amó primero» (1 Jn 4,19). Él no es indiferente a nosotros. Está interesado en cada uno de nosotros, nos conoce por nuestro nombre, nos cuida y nos busca cuando lo dejamos. Cada uno de nosotros le interesa; su amor le impide ser indiferente a lo que nos sucede. Pero ocurre que cuando estamos bien y nos sentimos a gusto, nos olvidamos de los demás (algo que Dios Padre no hace jamás), no nos interesan sus problemas, ni sus sufrimientos, ni las injusticias que padecen... Entonces nuestro corazón cae en la indiferencia: yo estoy relativamente bien y a gusto, y me olvido de quienes no están bien. Esta actitud egoísta, de indiferencia, ha alcanzado hoy una dimensión mundial, hasta tal punto que podemos hablar de una globalización de la indiferencia. Se trata de un malestar que tenemos que afrontar como cristianos.

Rinfrancate i vostri cuori (Gc 5,8) la Quaresima è un tempo di rinnovamento per la Chiesa, le comunità e i singoli fedeli. Soprattutto però è un "tempo di grazia" (2 Cor 6,2). Dio non ci chiede nulla che prima non ci abbia donato: "Noi amiamo perché egli ci ha amati per primo" (1 Gv 4,19). Lui non è indifferente a noi. Ognuno di noi gli sta a cuore, ci conosce per nome, ci cura e ci cerca quando lo lasciamo. Ciascuno di noi gli interessa; il suo amore gli impedisce di essere indifferente a quello che ci accade. Però succede che quando noi stiamo bene e ci sentiamo comodi, certamente ci dimentichiamo degli altri (cosa che Dio Padre non fa mai), non ci interessano i loro problemi, le loro sofferenze e le ingiustizie che subiscono... allora il nostro cuore cade nell'indifferenza: mentre io sto relativamente bene e comodo, mi dimentico di quelli che non stanno bene. Questa attitudine egoistica, di indifferenza, ha preso oggi una dimensione mondiale, a tal punto che possiamo parlare di una globalizzazione dell'indifferenza. Si tratta di un disagio che, come cristiani, dobbiamo affrontare.
